DISCUSSION AND RESULTS

It is known that the content and significance of Shavkat Mirziyoyev's speech at the joint session of the chambers of the Oliy Majlis dedicated to the solemn ceremony of his inauguration, as well as the priority tasks outlined in it, were warmly welcomed by students, civil servants, scientists, experts, and the general public.

At this point, it is worth noting that the President's speech was focused on the future, a practical program of the country's development strategy. In his speech, the Head of State touched upon all aspects of the country's life in detail, proposing new ideas, innovations, and news.

Sh. Mirziyoyev outlined seven priority areas of the New Uzbekistan Development Strategy. In order to ensure the continuity and continuity of reforms, the principle “From a Strategy of Actions to a Strategy of Development” was adopted as the main idea and main criterion in this conceptual document. “Taking into account the demands of our people, we developed the New Uzbekistan Development Strategy and conducted a kind of nationwide discussion of it during the election process. In this important conceptual document, in order to ensure the continuity and continuity of our reforms, the principle "From a Strategy of Actions to a Strategy of Development" was put on the agenda as the main idea and main criterion," the president said.

In particular, it aims to build a democratic state through the development of a free civil society, ensure human dignity and its legitimate interests, and promote justice. and the rule of law - building a democratic state, ensuring human dignity, Important tasks such as developing the national economy, conducting a fair social policy, developing human capital, and implementing reforms in the spiritual and educational spheres have been identified. In addition, issues such as finding solutions to global problems at the national and regional levels, ensuring peace and security, and developing international cooperation have been discussed in detail.

In this speech, the head of state, while setting out priority areas for the next five years, emphasized that the rights, freedoms, and legitimate interests of every citizen living in our country are the highest value.

One of the noteworthy aspects of the report is that the New Uzbekistan Development Strategy prioritizes the individual and human values, and organizes the governance of the state and society based on the new principle of "man - society - state." In a word, practical result, human benefit, His dignity has become the main goal.

It is worth noting that over the past five years, a number of systemic reforms have been implemented in the development of the social sphere and positive results have been achieved, but at the same time, there are a number of problems and shortcomings that prevent the creation of effective mechanisms in this area. In the next five years, social reforms will be of particular importance in this regard.

Looking back at the work carried out in the social sphere over the past years, we can see that working with people in need of social protection and permanent assistance has become increasingly important. "Iron Notebook", "Women" notebook", "Youth" notebook" as new as A working mechanism has been introduced. The number of people receiving social benefits has increased by almost 1.5 times.

Note as it was said, this progress strategy seven from the direction consists of.

first direction is aimed at building a democratic state through the promotion of human dignity and the development of a free civil society. The promotion of human dignity , the protection of everyone's rights and freedoms, and the legitimate interests of all have become a priority direction of the reforms being implemented in our country. Also, The following goals and objectives have been set to implement this direction:

1. a pillar of public management and control .
2. link in solving existing problems in the regions .
3. Goal: To adapt the institutional framework of local government activities to the requirements of the times.
4. Transform the activities of public administration bodies based on the principle of "orienting them to serve citizens ."
5. Goal: To implement a public administration system that is flexible, professional, fair, and highly effective.
6. Goal: To streamline the administrative apparatus and optimize work processes in the public administration system.
7. purpose: In our country reforms consistent continue in progress High Further enhance the role of the Majlis chambers and political parties.
8. purpose: Norm creativity process modernization to do, ensuring strict implementation of legislative documents.

9. Goal: develop the "e- government" system , increase the share of e- government services to 100 percent, and eliminate bureaucracy.
10. purpose: State citizenship service system modern standards based on organization.
11. purpose: People with of communication mechanisms improvement.
12. Goal: Improve the organizational and legal framework for effective public oversight.

this direction will be a continuous continuation of large-scale reforms aimed at ensuring human dignity and its legitimate interests over the past five years, raising them to a new level. In particular, paragraph 3 of the Development Strategy and the “roadmap” for its implementation in 2022 provides for the introduction of an “active” model of the mahalla and providing each citizens' assembly with the necessary resources and opportunities to directly solve the problems of the population and develop the territory. For this, in the future, a large part of state functions will be transferred from the center to the regions . In each mahalla, the khokim assistant position current is being done. District budget additional sources and a separate fund of the mahalla will be formed. Central offices will be transformed, a compact and effective management system will be created, and offices performing tasks in the same direction will be optimized. The powers of citizens' self-government bodies will be expanded in solving socio-economic problems , and a separate fund of the mahalla will be created for this purpose. All this will lead to an increase in the quality and efficiency of solving the problems of the population. In general, each priority area of the strategy is human It encompasses tasks that serve to glorify the value of the

After all, as our President emphasized, “human dignity is not some abstract, lofty concept for us. When we say human dignity, we mean, first of all, the peaceful and secure life of every citizen, the enjoyment of his fundamental rights and freedoms.” to provide in mind "We will catch it."

CONCLUSION AND OFFERS

The protection of human rights is a continuous process. In conclusion, we can say that in the Development Strategy of New Uzbekistan, our country has set important tasks and goals for the next five years in terms of improving human dignity. Therefore, it is in the interest of all our people that the process of large-scale reforms continues consistently and is productive. And each of us is responsible for their implementation. After all, our unity and solidarity are important for the future and development of our country.

We believe that all state and public organizations, civil society institutions, and representatives of non-governmental and non-profit organizations will be fully engaged in implementing the New Uzbekistan Development Strategy.

The New Uzbekistan Development Strategy will usher in a new stage of our national development and become a holistic spiritual foundation and criterion that will unite our people towards common goals.
